- Goggles (2 pairs recommended)
- Swimming costume/jammers & spare
- Towels (2 recommended)
- Warm, dry clothing for between races - Club kit/t-shirt/hoodie if possible
- Poolside footwear/sliders
- Money for lockers if required
- Fluids and snacks

Food & Drinks

- Fruit (grapes, banana, apple), cereal bars, flapjacks, sandwiches and wraps
- Water or low-sugar drinks

Please avoid:

- Fizzy drinks
- Sweets and excessive sugary snacks
- Fried or heavy foods during and before the gala

What to Expect

- Arrive at least 10-15 minutes before warm-up and report to your coach.
- Swimmers should sit together with their squad/team where possible.
- Coaches and marshals will guide swimmers throughout the gala.
- Before and after each race, swimmers should speak to their coach for a support and feedback.
- Refuel and hydrate after each race with a light snack and water

Most importantly - enjoy the experience and support your teammates!

Parents & Carers

Please help by:

- Ensuring swimmers arrive on time with the correct kit
- Supporting coaches, officials and volunteers
- Remaining in spectator areas
- Informing coaches/team managers of any collection changes
- Encouraging swimmers positively throughout the day

!!! Swimmers should always inform a coach or marshal before leaving poolside.

Full Meet Conditions

1. The meet will be held under Swim England Regulations, Technical Rules of Swimming and these conditions.
2. The competition is open to members of Kingston upon Hull Swimming Club.
3. Penguins and Swim Skills swimmers may enter 25m events only. Entry into Breaststroke events also requires approval from the Lead Coach.
